

Communication in relationships When studying this unit students will explore their core values and how to manage strong emotions in relationships as well as being taught how to communicate their wants/needs in a relationship. Students will also learn how to safely and responsibly manage changes in relationships, including the ending of relationships. and life-saving skills such as a primary survey, the recovery position and CPR. Furthermore, students will increase their

